

Biodata

Cheikh Oumar BA is PhD Socio-Anthropologist. He is the Executive Director of IPAR (www.ipar.sn), West-African Think Tank focusing on policy research in agriculture and the rural economy specialized in land tenure and natural resources management, agriculture performance, employment demographics and migration, public policy.

He is also the Scientific coordinator of the Senegal team for the Rural Development Study program financed by the World Bank, the French Cooperation and the International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD) on the implications of structural adjustment on agriculture and rural areas in Senegal.

He has coordinated a regional study on 4 countries (Mali, Gambia, Mauritania and Senegal) on Voluntary Guidelines and organized four (4) national workshops for law makers (Members of Parliament) in these countries. He has also coordinated the study on Land Governance Assessment framework (LGAF), World Bank (Participated in World Bank annual meetings in 2012, 2013, 2014)

In 2012, He was a member of National commission of Land Reform in Senegal. He was a member of several networks such as “Gender in Action network, France”, the Euro-African Association for Development Anthropology (APAD)...

In the last 5 years, he has coordinated :

- West Africa studie on Large scale Land Based Investments in Africa (LSLBI)-LPI
- West African Economic and Monetary Union Studie on the Rural Land Markets in West Africa: Ivoiry Coast, Benin, Burkina Faso and Senegal